CERTIFICATE OF INTERNSHIP: Ass. Prof. Mushak Nataliia

Within the framework of the "East-West Dialogue" program of the German Academic Exchange Service Ass. Prof. Dr. Nataliia Mushak was invited by the Institute of East European Law of Kiel University and granted a monthly scholarship for a research stay including university lectures. The research stay covered the period between 01 July 2018 and 01 August 2018.

During the internship period Ass. Prof. Mushak provided a set of lectures for students. The lectures were devoted to legal, political and economic aspects of EU-Ukraine cooperation under the Association Agreement, the current state of approximation of Ukrainian law in accordance with the EU acquis. Particular attention was paid to the collaboration of Ukraine with the Schengen Area Member States.

Ms. Mushak Nataliia had the opportunity for scientific research on her project "Legal Aspects of the Functioning of the Schengen Area" in libraries at Kiel University where she could use the relevant sources on international and European Law.

Ass. Prof. Dr. Mushak Nataliia also took part in the Conference "Legal Position of Non-Recognized States in the Post-Soviet Space under International Trade Law and in Private International Law and International Civil Litigation". The Conference took place in Bordesholm and Kiel on 12-14 July 2018. The purpose of the Conference was to study on a comparative basis legal approaches as to the position of non-recognized States in international trade law and private international law. The Conference also aimed to bring together scholars from different countries with a view to creating a civil society dialogue and helping to solve practical problems for people living in the respective territories.
